

Trustees represent the public interest in public education, acting as liaison between the community and the education system.

The work of School Trustees in exercising their duties is recognized by payment of an annual stipend, as well as the reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses and resources to effectively assist them in carrying out their duties.